

Are you ready for one of the most relaxing, fun and satisfying vacations you have ever had? The Big Island of Hawaii is waiting for you. It is a place of history, adventure, and beauty. It gave birth to the Hawaiian Islands' first great Hawaiian leader, King Kamehameha. His people lived in deep, lush valleys among plunging waterfalls, on white, black and green sand beaches, and below towering mountains and volcanoes. And now you can enjoy all its wonder!

EXTRAORDINARY RELATIONSHIP I: THE FREEDOM OF COMMITMENT

A week-long vacation-based workshop that transforms relationship

The Big Island of Hawaii

March 10-17, 2012

In the Extraordinary Relationship I: The Freedom of Commitment workshop, you get a truly unique opportunity to create a whole new view of yourselves in relationship - a view that transcends the way people ordinarily understand, and participate in, their relationships. A new kind of relationship arises - a relationship in which upset and fear consistently give way to freedom, ease and fulfillment. This workshop is a vibrant, active, alive exploration for people who are up to creating exceptional relationships!

"The workshop is masterfully designed and presented. We have done many relationship workshops over the years and this one sets a new standard and provides structures to make the benefits last."

Rita Hovakimian and Robert Weinberg

The Big Island of Hawaii is one of the most fascinating places on earth. It is the youngest of the Hawaiian Islands and has an active volcano even today. There are lush, deep valleys; plunging waterfalls; 266 miles of coastline; black sand beaches and Polynesian fishing villages. It is a place of refuge and healing; it is a place where Hawaiian royalty lived, surfed and gave birth to generations of the island's leaders. This is the Big Island, a place of history, adventure, romance and beauty. The Royal Kona Resort is located in the heart of Kailua-Kona, a place of fun, play and relaxation....a great jumping off place to explore nature's beauty.

Don't miss it!

Join us to rediscover and revitalize your inherent capacity for being extraordinarily related.
